Dr. David Ward
Marriage and Family Therapy Program
Pacific Lutheran University (MA)

Dear Dr. Ward:

The Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (COAMFTE), at its October 18-19, 2019 meeting, reviewed the and Response to Stipulations submitted by the Marriage and Family Therapy (MA) program at Pacific Lutheran University.

The Commission voted to accept the program’s Response to Stipulations and to remove the following Stipulations:

Key Element I-C
Key Element III-A
Key Element III-B

Key Element III-C
Key Element III-D
Key Element III-G

The program is accredited with no stipulations for the cycle of November 1, 2018 - November 1, 2025.

The Commission’s review of the program materials is below:

Key Element I-C: Communities of Interest

The program identifies its Communities of Interest, obtains formal and informal feedback from them, and describes how they inform the program’s mission, goals, and Student Learning Outcomes. Communities of Interest vary according to the program’s mission, goals, and outcomes and may include, but are not limited to, students, administrators, faculty, supervisors, consumers, graduates, potential employers, germane regulatory bodies, germane private and public funding sources, and diverse, marginalized, and/or underserved groups within these communities.

Commission’s Response:
The program meets the requirements of this Key Element. The Stipulation is removed.
Key Element III-A: Fiscal and Physical Resources

The program demonstrates that fiscal and physical resources are sufficient to achieve the program’s mission, goals, and outcomes. These resources are reviewed, revised as needed, and support program effectiveness.

Commission’s Response:
The program meets the requirements of this Key Element. The Stipulation is removed.

Key Element III–B: Technological Resources

The program demonstrates that technological resources (e.g., laptops, audio/visual equipment, EMRs and Billing Systems, Virtual Meeting Space) are secure, confidential, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act compliant (if relevant), and sufficient to achieve the program’s mission, goals, and outcomes. These resources are reviewed, revised as needed, and support program effectiveness.

Commission’s Response:
The program meets the requirements of this Key Element. The Stipulation is removed.

Key Element III-C: Instructional and Clinical Resources

The program demonstrates that instructional and clinical resources (e.g., space, personnel, supplies) are sufficient to enable the program to meet the program’s mission, goals, and outcomes. These resources are reviewed, revised as needed, and support program effectiveness.

Commission’s Response:
The program meets the requirements of this Key Element. The Stipulation is removed.

Key Element III-D: Academic Resources and Student Support Services

The program demonstrates that academic resources (e.g., library, advising, writing centers) and student support services (e.g., access to counseling, financial advising) are accessible to students and sufficient to achieve the program’s mission, goals, and outcomes. These resources are reviewed based on core faculty and student input, and the program takes action or advocates for institutional change to address areas required for program effectiveness.

Commission’s Response:
The program meets the requirements of this Key Element. The Stipulation is removed.

Key Element III-G: Governance of Program

Roles of faculty and student participation in the governance of the program are clearly defined and enable the program to meet the program’s mission, goals, and outcomes. The program must describe decision-making processes and procedures at the program and institutional levels regarding the operation of the program that support program effectiveness.

Commission’s Response:
The program meets the requirements of this Key Element. The Stipulation is removed.
